

Back from limbo are the Dixie Dregs, whose new live album Bring 'Em Back Alive (Capricorn) give a pretty good idea of what's in store at their show-- long, wandering instrumentals featuring super guitarist and band leader Steve Morse taking the guitar to new heights, occasionally matched by keyboardist T. Lavitz and violinist Allen Sloan M.D. The Dregs play it all, fusion, country, blues Southern rock and can be the essence of taste or the ultimate in tastelessness often in the same song. They manage to avoid boredom by tossing in amazing runs or tricky rhythmic changes just when you're about to lose interest.

Dixie Dregs with One Alternative: Sat., Oct. 10 at 7:30 and 11 p.m. at the Chestnut Cabaret, 38th and Chestnut Sts., $13, $12.50 (adv.) 382-1201.
--Peter Brown